Quasquicentennial

/kwos-kwi-sen-ten-ee-uhl/

-adj.: pertaining to or marking a period of 125 years.*

On September 8 we will celebrate our 125th anniversary. The same year our bank opened, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn was first published by Mark Twain, the first roller coaster was patented, Dr. Pepper was first served, and the Statue of Liberty found its home in New York City. We are proud of our long history and would like to share some highlights with you:

1885

The First National Bank in Sioux Falls was established and is now the oldest bank in Sioux Falls.

1929

Moved from 10th & Phillips to the 112 South Phillips Avenue office. This building was topped by the First National limestone eagle, which has become a downtown Sioux Falls landmark.

1930s

First National Bank stood behind Sioux Falls during the depression years, and was one of only two banks to survive.

1976

The Bank's current main office facility was constructed at the corner of 9th and Phillips in the very heart of Sioux Falls.

2010

The First National Bank in Sioux Falls continues its 125-year commitment to Sioux Falls and surrounding communities. Today, we have over 270 employees in 20 locations.
