Giving Guidelines

For all community support, First National Bank will:

- Make gifts to qualifying entities under applicable Sections of the Internal Revenue code, with a focus on our local communities.
- Support programs and projects that are clearly defined.
- Review all complete applications received on a timely basis, usually toward the end of each month.

First National Bank will generally not make contributions to:

- Political parties, political candidates, or campaigns for specific ballot referendums or initiatives.
- Organizations advocating positions or issues that we feel may be controversial, regardless of our opinion about such issues.
- Individuals and for-profit organizations.
